Re: Penn State University's 2005 Annual Report to the USDA

Dear Dr. Goldentyre:

As requested, I am enclosing the Annual Report of Research Facility for animals at the Pennsylvania State University. The report includes animals used at University Park as well as other applicable campus locations. Please note that no exceptions to the regulations or standards were approved by the IACUC nor were any conducted during this reporting period.

Please note that dogs and cats were used in behavioral studies and for classroom activities. These animals were privately owned, remained under the supervision of their owners and were not housed at the Pennsylvania State University. Many cats were also purchased as preserved specimens and used as a model for anatomy instruction.

Thank you,
